FOE Summer Series

THE DETAILS

The Family Over Everything Foundation's "FOE Summer Series" will comprise a series of community events to empower and give back to underserved communities in Philadelphia, the hometown of the organization's co-founders, NBA stars and twin brothers Marcus and Markieff Morris. The Morris family and their Family Over Everything Foundation will continue serving their mission to support and empower underserved communities, specifically youth and members of single parent households, by hosting a series of programs this summer:

JULY 10-11, 2019

Youth Basketball Camp

ABOUT THE EVENT

FOE Foundation's annual youth summer basketball camp will serve over 150 low-income boys and girls from the Philadelphia area. Camp includes lunch, giveaways, motivational speakers and bus transportation to and from the camp's state-of-the-art recreational facility, all for a subsidized rate of $50 per camper. We will also offer several full scholarships for youth with acute financial need.

JULY 13, 2019
Men's Summit

ABOUT THE EVENT

The Men's Summit will consist of a free, all-day event for an estimated 100 men from the Philadelphia region, mainly young adults between the ages of 18-45. The summit will feature motivational speakers and subject matter experts on critical topics often left out of public conversation and academic curricula, such as civic engagement, mental health, wealth generation and more.

JULY 14, 2019 Celebrity Softball Game

ABOUT THE EVENT

FOE Foundation's inaugural Celebrity Softball Game and fundraiser will give inner-city Philadelphia youth a rare and exciting opportunity to see their favorite athletes and celebrities up close, particularly Marcus and Markieff — two positive role models from the youth's own community who have achieved success while dedicating their lives off the court to giving back and serving the underserved.

AUGUST 10, 2019
Backpack Giveaway

ABOUT THE EVENT

As students prepare for the new academic year, FOE Foundation will host its fifth annual Backpack Giveaway where low-income youth will receive stylish backpacks filled with school supplies. The event also serves as a community fair, featuring free physicals by on-site nurses, as well as local food vendors, prize raffles, face painting and more.

Family Over Everything Foundation

ABOUT THE FOUNDATION

Founded in 2017 by professional basketball players Markieff Morris, Marcus Morris and Thomas Robinson along with Thomasine Morris to formalize existing charitable efforts, the Family Over Everything Foundation leads philanthropic initiatives around the country to support and empower underserved communities, specifically youth and members of single parent households.
